WILSON DEPRECATES REPORT OF CANDIDACY FOR 1916 NOMINATION

ABOARD THE PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL TRAIN, PITTSBURG, JAN. 9.—PRESIDENT WILSON IS TODAY RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS FROM FRIENDS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY ON HIS STIRRING UTTERANCES MADE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON AT INDIANAPOLIS. HIS SUGGESTION FOR THE CREATION OF A FEDERAL LABOR BUREAU IS RECEIVING SPECIAL CONSIDERATION IN THE DISPATCHES. SOME OF THE PRESIDENT'S ADVISERS SAY HIS REFERENCE TO THE 1916 CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN MISINTERPRETED AND THAT HE DID NOT DECLARE HIMSELF A CANDIDATE FOR RENOMINATION. IT IS SAID THAT THE PRESIDENT DEPRECATES THIS INTERPRETATION OF HIS REFERENCE TO THE NEXT DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION.

MOVEMENT STARTED TO STOP WHEAT SHIPMENTS

CHICAGO, JAN. 9.—OVER 200 SMALL BAKERIES IN THIS CITY WERE FORCED TO CLOSE YESTERDAY AND TODAY ON ACCOUNT OF THE SENSATIONAL ADVANCE IN THE PRICE OF FLOUR. WITH FLOUR AROUND SEVEN DOLLARS A BARREL, MANY OTHERS WILL BE FORCED TO CLOSE. THE LARGER BAKERIES ARE PLANNING TO RAISE THE PRICE OF BREAD TO SIX CENTS PER LOAF WITHIN THE NEXT TWO WEEKS. A MOVEMENT HAS BEEN STARTED TO URGE THE PLACING OF AN EMBARGO ON FURTHER EXPORTATIONS OF WHEAT FROM THE UNITED STATES.

FIRST TRIP JAN'Y 10 ON OVERSEA FREIGHT LINE KEY WEST-CUBA

DREAM OF FLAGLER TO BECOME REALITY WHEN HUGE BARGE
LEAVES FLORIDA PORT WITH LOADED TRAIN.

KEY WEST, Jan. 9.—Direct communication with Cuba from any point in South America without change of steamer or via, the late Henry M. Flagler's dream, will be realized Sunday when the big ferry boat, Henry M. Flagler, will leave for Havana with her full load.

The steam ferry car barge sailed from Key West for Havana Thursday for her trial trip across the Florida Straits, and will return today to the Florida port in time for her first transoceanic voyage on January 10.

W. H. Beardsley, president of the Florida system, and other members of the Flagler family will go to Key West, arriving there in time to meet the ship when she returns, and will be present when she steams with her first cargo of Cuban freight cars, carrying sugar freight in bulk from the mainland of North America to a foreign country for the first time in the history of railroad and steam navigation.

The Henry M. Flagler came from the shipyards at Philadelphia to her Florida home under her own steam and power, and made the trip with ease. She paid little attention to the rough seas off Cape Hatteras, being built to ride the waters of Florida straits, which have some little reputation also for being more than a mill pond.

This vessel was launched September 18, the keel having been laid on

CHARGED THAT FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS COULD EASILY BE "WRECKED"

CHICAGO, JAN. 9.—THAT FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS ARE AT THE MERCY OF THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, WHO COULD WRECK THE BANKS WITH A SINGLE DRAFT, WAS THE STATEMENT BY CHARLES DAWES, COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY IN THE M'KINLEY CABINET, SPEAKING AT THE NOONDAY LUNCHEON OF THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB. MR. DAWES URGED IMMEDIATE CORRECTIVE LEGISLATION AS THE "MOST IMPORTANT ISSUE BEFORE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE," EXPRESSING FEAR THAT THE POWER WOULD, IN FUTURE, BE USED FOR POLITICAL PRESSURE.

GERMAN WEDGE'S POINT TURNED FROM WARSAW, CLAIM OF PETROGRAD

PETROGRAD, JAN. 9.—THE SINKING OF A TURKISH TRANSPORT WAS OFFICIALLY CONFIRMED TODAY, AND IT IS STATED THAT 900 TURKISH SOLDIERS WERE DROWNED.

SHATTERED REMNANTS OF THE TURKISH ARMY HAVE BEEN DEFEATED AT ARDANIAN AND SASIKAMSIH, AND HAVE AGAIN TAKEN THE OFFENSIVE IN AN EFFORT TO SAVE THEMSELVES FROM TOTAL DESTRUCTION.

PRESSURE BY A HUGE RUSSIAN ARMY HAS TURNED THE GERMAN WEDGE FROM THE DIRECTION OF WARSAW, AND THE ENEMY IS NOW HEADED TOWARD THE VISTULA, BETWEEN WARSAW AND IVANGOROD. THE GERMANS HAVE ADVANCED TO MOGILIOWA, 26 MILES FROM THE VISTULA RIVER.

THE RUSSIANS CONTINUE TO SWEEP TOWARD HUNGARY, AND ARE NOW 30 MILES FROM BORGO PASS, THE MAIN ENTRANCE INTO HUNGARY, FROM BOKOWINA, THROUGH THE CARPATHIANS.

BAY COUNTY CITIZENS IGNORE OYSTER-BED LAW

PENSACOLA, JAN. 9.—BAY COUNTY IS IN A STATE OF ANARCHY OVER THE OYSTER-BED CONTROVERSY. MOSES DYKES, A CONSTABLE OF SOUTHPORT, WAS FATALLY SHOT LAST NIGHT BY J. W. CANNON, WHO WAS UNDER ARREST ON A CHARGE OF TRESPASSING ON LEASED OYSTER BEDS. MEMBERS OF THE LAW-DEFYING CLUB DECLARE THAT THEY WILL TAKE OYSTERS FROM LEASED BOTTOMS IN OPEN DEFiance OF THE LAW, WHICH THEY CLAIM IS UNJUST.

BANQUET OF BOARD OF TRADERS A MOST SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

ADDRESSES BY PREST. STEVENS
AND COL. BINGHAM—CO-OPERA-TION, MORE ENERGETIC WORK AND ADVERTISING STRESSED.

No more apt allusion to the Daytona board of trade banquet, at the Hotel Despland on Friday evening, may be employed than to merely say that it was a perfect success in all particulars. A score and a half of enthusiastic gentlemen, including members of the board of trade, local business men, a sprinkling of guests from out of town, and representatives of the press carried their keen appetites into the Despland's main dining room and did a flattering job to the dinner, the menu of which the following is a copy:

Coupe à la Russe
Consonance, Printaniere
Queen Olives, Radishes
Boiled Red Snapper, Provencal
Fried Lobster, à la Newburg, or Creole
Fillet of Beef with Mashed Potatoes
Mashed Potatoes, Cauliflower, au Gratin
Tongue Salad
Nougatine Ice Cream
Macaroons, French Kisses
Requefort Cheese, Toasted Crackers
Coffee

After dinner brief addresses were made by the board's president, Roland E. Stevens, and Col. C. M. Bingham.

President Stevens reviewed the board of trade's achievements during the past 12 months, mentioned some of the things that might have been accomplished through more earnest work and fuller cooperation, and made a strong appeal to the business men of the community to "put their shoulders to the wheel of progress" and achieve wonderful things for Daytona. Colonel Bingham's talk was also

MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP CLASS
With the recent news that our beloved Dr. C. L. Williams has passed out of this world, we are deeply grieved at the loss of one of our outstanding leaders, and a constant reminder of the importance of his life and work. We have established a Memorial Fund in his name, and contributions may be sent to the Board of Directors, who will use all of the funds to further his ideals in practical education. Any amount you can give, no matter how small, will be greatly appreciated. Please make your check payable to the Board of Directors and designate the amount for the Williams Memorial Fund.

FORMER SEABREEZE MEN ARE PROMOTING WEST COAST RESORT

M. L. WAGGONER AND W. L. SONNTAG PROMISE BIG THINGS FOR NEW RESORT NOW DEVELOPING.

St. Petersburg Daily Times of
Feb. 10, 1915, said:

"A deal closed on the last day of December and made public yesterday in St. Petersburg and made public yesterday in the west coast is to have a new winter resort which will rival Belladair in luxury and in the class of tourists it will attract. The new resort at Flivay, located twelve miles from Tarpon Springs, is to be developed into a high grade winter resort according to plans of W. L. Sonntag and M. L. Waggoner, who have just purchased it from the Flivay land company. Mr. Sonntag is from St. Paul, Minn., and Mr. Waggoner from Evansville, Ind. Both men are street railway builders and veteran developers of such property as this."

Will Have Golf Links

Under the plan of these two men, Flivay is to have some big hotels, a nine-hole golf course and a gasoline motor railway connecting it with Tarpon Springs. Messrs. Sonntag and Waggoner know what they are talking about, as they are the men who developed Seabreeze, the famous East Coast resort. The ten miles of shell road, the big hotels and golf course at that place are indications of what these gentlemen have done. These are things they propose to do at Flivay. The golf course is to be started at once, the roads and streets improved, the club house made a highly attrac-tractive place and the trolley road to Tarpon Springs started. While it is to be a gasoline motor road at present, it will be built with the plan of later turning it into a trolley line.

Scene from "Within The Law," at the New Daytona Theatre on Wednesday, January 13th.

Development Planned on Large Scale

"Mr. Sonntag and Mr. Waggoner bought 640 acres at Flivay. They have one hundred and ten houses which they will convert into bungalows. At present there are about fifty people at Flivay and the developers hope to make this nucleus grow into a flourishing resort within a comparatively short time. The trolley road will cost some $15,000 per mile to construct. This and the golf course with other improvements will cost a pile of money, but this commodity does not seem to worry the developers as they have ample funds to push the work through.

"Both men are in St. Petersburg at present and are winter residents there.

Mr. Waggoner and his wife reside on Third avenue south and Mr. Sonntag and family are at the Alabama. Long experience on the East Coast gives them ability to make comparisons between it and the west coast. Mr. Sonntag's remarks about St. Petersburg after a few days here are most significant.

Better Future for the West Coast

"I find a marked contrast between the west and east coast of Florida," said Mr. Sonntag, "due to the fact that the east coast winter visitors move about more than over here. People who go over there skip from one hotel and one resort to another. Here they come to one town and stay. I believe the west coast is the 'home-builders' section. More people come here and locate in one place to really live in it permanently. St. Petersburg, to my mind, is one of the most attractive towns from a home building standpoint that I have ever been in."

First American Admiral.
Esek Hopkins was the first admiral of the American navy, being appointed in 1775 by the continental congress commander-in-chief of the navy. While he at first achieved great success, he was removed in 1777 on the ground of incompetency. He died in 1802 at Providence, R. I., where a monument has been erected to his memory.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS NEXT FRIDAY EVENING

At the meeting of the Daytona Board of Trade, to be held on Friday evening, January 15th, officers for the ensuing year will be chosen. It is expected that the meeting will be otherwise important, it being the first one of the new year, and a large attendance of the membership is desired.

Cause of Water Bubbling.
There is an erroneous impression that water bubbling violently is hotter than water at the boiling point. As a matter of fact, the ebullition is caused by the escaping steam, which means lost heat. All water (except in high elevation) reaches the boiling point at 212 degrees Fahrenheit and however fast or slow the water may be boiling it remains at that temperature.

Fan-Shaped Tree.
Elm trees have been planted in the squares and parks of our city where you may make their acquaintance. They are trees you can learn to recognize at a distance because of their general form or habit of growth. A well-grown tree is broad and rather flat across the top, and for this reason it is called a fan-shaped tree.

GERMANS TRYING HARD TO CUT THEIR ENEMIES' COMMUNICATION LINES

PARIS, JAN. 9.—FIGHTING IN THE VICINITY OF AMIENS INDICATES THAT THE GERMANS ARE MAINTAINING THEIR EFFORTS TO BREAK THROUGH THE ALLIES AND CUT THEIR LINES OF COMMUNICATION BETWEEN FLANDERS AND PARIS, ACCORDING TO THIS AFTERNOON'S OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

THERE HAVE BEEN ARTILLERY DUELS IN THE AMIENS REGION AND IN THE VICINITY OF ARRAS. AROUND SOUPRÉ THEY CAPTURED A HILL AFTER THREE ATTACKS AND REPULSED ALL EFFORTS OF THE GERMANS TO RETAKE IT. THE FRENCH ALSO TOOK THREE TRENCHES 600 YARDS LONG THIS MORNING.

THE GERMANS BOMBARED SOISSONS, BURNING THE PALACE OF JUSTICE THERE.

IN SOUTH YPRES THE FRENCH DAMAGED GERMAN TRENCHES AND SILENCED MINE THROWERS. AIDED BY HEAVY RE-ENFORCEMENTS, THE ENEMY CAPTURED BURNHAPTEHAUP AT AN ENORMOUS COST OF LIVES.

A FIERY DOSE

By JOHN Y LARNED

When Billy O'Brien was invited to spend a week with his friend Tom Roberts he was delighted. He had met Tom's sister, Fanny, and had fallen in love with her. She was a girl of great beauty, with dark hair and brown eyes, a full set of white teeth, and a pair of dimples one in each cheek. She was the most beautiful girl he had ever seen. She had thought of him by day and dreamed of him by night. He received the invitation on Monday for the following Friday. Then followed the four longest days of Billy's life. He counted the hours till at last the day of his departure arrived, and an hour before dinner he was under the same roof with the girl who had enthralled him. Now for the wedding.

Tom's brother, Jim, was invited and did not make his appearance. On the second night of Billy's visit he went to bed at 11 o'clock and was soon asleep. He was awakened by hearing some one moving about the room.

Whichever it was tried to light a match. It sputtered a moment and went out, but not before Billy saw by its light the face of Fanny Roberts.

"There," she grumbled, "the last match gone, and I don't know where to find another! However, I know exactly where I left your medicine—in the closet on the third shelf from the bottom in the right hand corner. I don't believe in giving medicine in the dark, but I'll risk it this time."

Billy heard her groping and fumbling and finally she came to his bedside, put a glass half full of some liquid to his lips and poured it down his throat. Then she left him with a good night.

O'Brien was one of the most modest, sensitive young men in the world, and he considered young girls to be even more sensitive than himself. If Fanny knew that she had come into his room at midnight by mistake to give him a dose of medicine she would never get over the shock. This is the reason why he had not made her mistake known to her and why he had permitted her to pour down his throat a medicine he did not need.

He lay congratulating himself on the delicacy with which he had handled the matter and how, if she came to know of her mistake, it would set him up in her opinion. Girls were sometimes caught by trifles, and he wouldn't wonder if this bit of sacrifice known to her and why he had permitted her to pour down his throat a medicine he did not need.

He lay congratulating himself on the delicacy with which he had handled the matter and how, if she came to know of her mistake, it would set him up in her opinion. Girls were sometimes caught by trifles, and he wouldn't wonder if this bit of sacrifice known to her and why he had permitted her to pour down his throat a medicine he did not need.

Then he felt something down in his stomach where the dose had gone that felt as if a red hot poker had been applied to his internals. He started. A dose in the dark had been given him, and might it not have been the wrong medicine? Another application of the hot poker. He sat up in bed, his hair stood on end and a cold sweat broke out all over him. Fanny had been looking for a bottle in the closet in her brother's room, not Billy's. She certainly had given him the wrong dose.

Great heavens! Could she have poison?

A third application of the poker. This time it seemed to Billy that some one had gripped him with redhot pincers. He sprang out of bed, ran to Tom Roberts' door and hammered on it. Tom came out in his pajamas and asked what was the matter.

"Bring me an emetic as soon as you can!" cried Billy. "I'm afraid I've swallowed poison."

Tom ran to his sister's door, called her up and told her to go downstairs and bring up some mustard and warm water. She tried to find out who had been poisoned, but Tom told her to "go on and be quick about it." When she brought up the emetic she found Billy's door open, the room lighted and her brother bending over the groaning invalid.

Then for the first time she understood the cause of the trouble. She flew to the closet, opened the door, took out a vial and read the label. Then she put the vial back again and gave Billy a look, but said nothing.

"I took a dose of that," said Billy between groans. "Will it kill me?"

"No," replied Fanny.

"What is it?"

"A preparation of ginger and red pepper."

"Is that all?"

"Yes; it won't hurt you."

"That's past praying for. It's eating my vitals."

"Thank heaven it's no worse."

"It's bad enough as it is."

"How came you to take it?" queried Tom.

This was a poser. Billy took advantage of another internal firebrand to invent a story. When the paroxysm had passed he said:

"Just before I came up here I felt sick and went to a doctor. He said I had anorexia nervosa and gave me some medicine for it. I forgot to take it before going to bed; got up and hunted for it in the dark. I must have got into the wrong place."

By this time the emetic took effect, and Fanny took advantage of the fact to withdraw. While Billy was retching he thought he heard a t-e-h-e in the next room.

"Confound that girl!" he said mentally—he was doing something else physically—"catch me trying to shield her again. Next time she tries to give me a dose I'll turn it down her own throat!"

But the next morning he felt better and was doing a lot of spooning—not with medicine either.

REJOINS SCHOOL FOR WINTER TERM IN ST. AUGUSTINE

Mrs. R. B. Ennis, of Chicago, who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Mitchell, at Daytona Beach, was a St. Augustine visitor Friday, accompanying to that city Otto Brunner, a young Austrian from Vienna who is a student in a northern school which holds its winter term in the ton, or South Ridgewood avenue. The young man spent the holidays here with Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell.

Definition of Love.

Love is an awakening, an inspiration, dulling the edge of resentment, sharpening the eloquence of wit, impoverishing distinction, guaranteeing equality and proclaiming the omnipotence of God.—Willis George Emerson.

MET WITH DIFFICULTY ON JOHN ANDERSON HIGHWAY

Mrs. E. F. Lathrop, of Brooklyn, N.Y., who has spent several past winters in Daytona, and has many friends here, arrived Thursday for the season, accompanied by her sons, B. L. and E. L. Lathrop and their families, and they are at present at the Isling James Lathrop and family will come to Daytona next week, and Thornton M. Lathrop and family will also be here later in the season. The party made the trip from Jacksonville to this city in Mrs. Lathrop's car, a Pierce Arrow. The recent heavy rains have put the roads in bad condition in the low places and about half way between W. Augustine and Daytona the car became mired and the party was obliged to spend the night at the home of a native who extricated the car for them the following morning and was well rewarded for his trouble.

New Definition.

NEXT WEEK'S ATTRACTIONS AT THE NEW DAYTONA THEATRE

At the New Daytona theatre last evening an added attraction were exhibition dances by Miss Alyce Green and Billy Conrad, which were very much enjoyed and appreciated by the large audience present. The Simple Simon company again furnished a good evening's entertainment.

On Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, a strong vaudeville program will be the offering, with daily matinees. Miss Doris Illington, famous serpentine dancer and mistress of the "Devil's Whirl," Edward Rhea, character comedian, with his Chinese fiddle, the Musical Norman, Rhea and Illington, and others, will be on the bill, with extra runs of pictures.

On Wednesday, January 13th, the most famous of all famous plays, "Within the Law," with Clara Bow and a metropolitan company of artists, and the original New York stage production, will be the attraction.

On Friday, January 15th, the musical comedy treat of the season will be presented, when the Weber theater production of "Alma, Where Do You Live?" will be here for one night only. This will be one of the prettiest musical comedies that has ever been brought here.

ELECTION NEXT WEEK ON BOND PROPOSITION

NEW SMYRNA VOTERS WILL PASS

UPON PLAN TO RAISE $63,000 FOR WATERWORKS AND SEWERS.

NEW SMYRNA, Jan. 9.—The question of whether the city of New Smyrna shall issue $63,000 in bonds for the purpose of installing systems of waterworks and sewers and funding the city's indebtedness will be put up to the qualified voters of the city at the special election called for next Tuesday.

The propositions to be voted on are the issuing of $47,000 for the purpose of installing a system of waterworks, $12,000 for the purpose of installing a system of sewers, and $4,000 for the purpose of funding the city's indebtedness.

Father of Income Tax.

Britain's income tax, which the prime minister thinks should be revised, was first imposed in January, 1799, by the ingenious financier, Pitt. It was submitted to by an indignant nation, who got rid of the abomination in three years. But Napoleon could not be conquered without it, and it made spasmodic entrances and exits, until in 1842 it became a hardy annual. Ireland managed to struggle on without it until 1857.

NEW YORK CITY'S HEALTH EDUCATOR

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—This city is a pioneer in health education. It has recently for the $5,000 directorship of the newly created Bureau of Public Health Education. The education is under the civil service. A degree from a medical school is recognized standing is essential and graduate in public health work will be applicant. One who has also done editorial work will have an advantage.

The duties of the director, as outlined, will be to organize and administer the bureau, prepare popular bulletins dealing with the public health, act as editor-in-chief of the regular publications of the department.

Great emphasis is laid on ability to organize health exhibits, lectures on personal hygiene and the operation of motion picture projectors in educating the masses must be arranged. A school of sanitary science is planned, in which practical work will be done in the Department of Health.

An unusual duty imposed on the director will be that of organizing public tours of inspection of hospitals, waterworks, sewage disposal plants, dispensaries, and the like. The average citizen is to be given an idea of the institutions maintained by the city for the prevention and cure of diseases.

Where Steadiness Is Requisite.
A steady hand in military affairs is more requisite than in peace, because an error committed in war may prove irremediable.—Lord Bacon.

Cultivate Observation.
To behold is not necessarily to observe, and the power of comparing and combining is only to be obtained by education. It is much to be regretted that habits of exact observation are not cultivated in our schools. To this deficiency may be traced much of the fallacious reasoning and the false philosophy which prevails.—W. Humboldt.

HOW MANY TIMES HAVE YOU SAID

"IF I HAD ONLY BOUGHT LOTS OVER ON THE BEACH WHEN I FIRST CAME HERE I MIGHT HAVE BEEN RICH TODAY. I COULD HAVE BOUGHT ACRES FOR THE PRICE AT WHICH SINGLE LOTS ARE SELLING TODAY. ACREAGE CANNOT BE BOUGHT AT ANY PRICE. WHAT A FOOL I WAS." LET US POINT OUT A WAY FOR YOU TO GET IN AND MAKE UP.

DID YOU IMAGINE SUCH A THING AS A STREET CAR LINE TO THE BEACH FIVE YEARS AGO? PERHAPS YOU DID IMAGINE IT—IT IS A REALITY NOW. WOULD YOU HAVE BEGGED, BORROWED, OR ARRANGED IN SOME WAY TO GET HOLD OF ENOUGH MONEY TO BUY SOME BEACH PROPERTY, COULD YOU HAVE BEEN ASSURED THAT A CAR LINE WAS GOING TO BE BUILT TO YOUR PROPERTY? IF ANYONE COULD HAVE TOLD YOU POSITIVELY THAT THE CLARENDON HOTEL WAS GOING TO BE BUILT WHERE IT IS, WOULD YOU NOT HAVE DONE LIKEWISE, BOUGHT ALL THE PROPERTY POSSIBLE, ACCORDING TO YOUR MEANS? COULD ANYONE HAVE ASSURED YOU THAT THE NAUTILUS PROPERTY WAS TO BE IMPROVED AS IT IS TODAY—THAT A BASEBALL PARK WAS TO BE BUILT WHERE IT IS, WOULD YOU NOT HAVE BOUGHT ALL THE PROPERTY YOU COULD HAVE GOT HOLD OF?

THE STREET CAR LINE IS NOW BEING EXTENDED THROUGH OCEAN VIEW HEIGHTS, WHICH WILL PUT IT WITHIN TWELVE MINUTES' RIDE OF DOWNTOWN. COMPARE THE PRICES OF SEABREEZE LOTS WITH THE PRICES WE ARE ASKING FOR OCEAN VIEW HEIGHTS LOTS. WE ARE OFFERING THE OCEAN FRONT LOTS, WHICH ARE FIFTY BY THREE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FOUR, AT SIX HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE DOLLARS EACH, WHILE THE INSIDE LOTS, FIFTY BY ONE HUN-DRED AND FORTY, ARE OFFERED AT ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY DOLLARS EACH. A TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT PAYMENT IS ALL THAT IS REQUIRED DOWN, WITH EASY TERMS.

WERE WE TO PREDICT THAT WITHIN A FEW YEARS THE ENTIRE BEACH WILL HAVE A BOARD-WALK WITH AN OCEAN-PIER, LARGE HOTELS, WHICH WILL COMPARE FAVORABLY WITH THOSE OF ATLANTIC CITY. THAT STREET CAR LINES WILL CONNECT WITH DELAND, NEW SMYRNA, SANFORD, ORLANDO AND OTHER INTERIOR POINTS, YOU WOULD CALL US DREAMERS, BUT WE ARE PREDICTING JUST THAT VERY THING. NOW THINK OF WHAT THIS WILL MEAN TO THE PROPERTY ON THE BEACH. NOW IS THE TIME, MR. READER, TO GET IN ON THE GROUND FLOOR WHILE THESE PRICES ARE RIDICULOUSLY LOW. FOR WHEN ALL THESE THINGS SHALL HAVE TAKEN PLACE THE PRICES NATURALLY WILL BE WAY UP, AND YOU SHOULD BE THE ONE TO REAP THE BENEFIT, FOR ONCE IN YOUR LIFE PUT YOURSELF IN THE POSITION WHERE THE OTHER FELLOW WILL HAVE TO SAY, "YOU HAVE MADE A LOT OF MONEY ON LOTS WHICH YOU WERE FAR-SIGHTED ENOUGH TO PURCHASE WHEN THE PRICES WERE LOW."

IT'S NOT LUCK—it is just good business sense—TAKING ADVANTAGE OF AN OPPORTUNITY—AN OPPORTUNITY THAT DOES NOT COME EVERY DAY, AND YOU SHOULD NOT DELAY. IT WILL BE A PLEASURE TO DEMONSTRATE THE PROPERTY TO YOU, IF YOU WILL GIVE US THE OPPORTUNITY, AND TELL YOU OF THE CONTEMPLATED IMPROVEMENTS AND ANY FURTHER PARTICULARS THAT YOU MAY DESIRE. NOW IS THE TIME TO INVESTIGATE. OPPORTUNITY IS KNOCKING AT YOUR DOOR. DON'T PASS IT UP.

Casualties on Land and Sea.

Early in January the second phenomenal storm of the season added largely to the destruction of property along the ocean front of New Jersey and Long Island. On January 11, a Japanese volcano on Sakura Island burst suddenly into activity and destroyed three towns and killed more than a thousand persons. During a performance at a moving picture theater at Surabaya, Java, 35 women and children were burned to death. The steamer Monroe, from Norfolk to New York city, was rammed by the Nantucket during a night fog off Cape Charles, January 30, and 41 persons were lost. On March 14 more than a thousand persons lost their lives during a storm which flooded several towns in Southern Russia, and about the same time many persons were killed by an earthquake at Akita, Japan.

On March 21 the sealing steamer Newfoundland stranded on an ice floe in the Strait of Belle Isle and 77 of her crew were frozen to death. The same day the steamer Southern Cross and her crew disappeared. On April 28 an explosion in a mine shaft at Eccles, W. Va., caused the death of 180 miners. Early in May Sicily was visited by a series of shocks which did great damage along the eastern coast. The steamship Empress of Ireland was struck by the Norwegian collier Stora-Stad in the St. Lawrence river, May 23, and sank almost immediately, more than a thousand passengers losing their lives. May 30, Capt. Robert A. Bartlett of the Stefansson arctic expedition returned to St. Michael, Alaska, with the news that the Karluk sank, January 11, after having been crushed by ice, and that her crew was marooned on Wrangel Island. On September 7, eight members of this crew were found by a rescuing party. On June 19 more than two hundred miners were lost by an explosion in a coal mine near Alberta, Canada. A fire at Salem, federal in the national cemetery at Arlington was unveiled June 4.

On June 18 England captured the international polo championship at Meadowbrook, N. Y. It was made public on June 24 that Mrs. Morris K. Jesup had bequeathed $8,500,000 to public institutions. The American Museum of Natural History was a beneficiary to the extent of $5,000,000. That also, was the day on which the reconstructed Kiel canal was opened by the German kaiser. The International Eucharistic congress opened at Lourdes, France, July 22.

On September 3 Cardinal Giacomo della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, was elected pope to succeed the late Pius X. The new pontiff assumed the title of Benedict XV. The government crop report made public October 8, announced a record wheat harvest of $82,000,000 and a normal corn crop of 2,676,000,000. The world's championship series was won October 13 by the Boston National league baseball team.

On October 14 one of the most comprehensive financial schemes on record formulated by bankers at New York city involved the raising by the banks of a fund of $150,000,000 which was to be loaned upon warehouse receipts for cotton. On the last day of October the Panama canal was closed for traffic a second time on account of an earth slide into Culebra cut.

On November 6 the Chicago stockyards were closed on account of an epidemic of foot-and-mouth disease which had already led the federal authorities to establish quarantine in eight states against the shipment of cattle. Later this prohibition was extended to several other states. The so-called "house of governors" met in its seventh annual session at Madison, Wis., November 10.

After a period of suspension covering 15 weeks, brought about by the war, the cotton exchanges of New York and New Orleans opened for trading on November 16. The New York stock exchange, which was closed at the breaking out of hostilities, was reopened for restricted trading November 25. A red-letter event in the history of American athletics was the formal opening of the great Yale bowl, seating 60,000 persons, November 21. The annual Yale-Harvard football contest resulted in a Harvard victory, 36 to 0.

Among the Eminent Dead.

The record of those who have passed out of the world's activities during the year is of unusual length, and it contains the names of many who had achieved distinction.

Among the famous men who died in January were Dr. S. Weir Mitchell of Philadelphia, scientist and novelist; Dr. Edward Spitzka, alienist and neurologist; Count Yuko Ito, admiral of the Japanese fleet; Shelby M. Cullom, 30 years United States senator from Illinois, author of the interstate commerce law; Paul Deroulede, French poet and political agitator; the venerable James Addams, Beaver, Civil war hero and ex-governor of Pennsylvania, and Simon Bolivar Buckner, whose name and fame have been familiar to the American public for more than half a century—as a lieutenant general in the Confederate army, governor of Kentucky, candidate for vice-president on the Gold Democratic ticket in 1856.

February's contribution to the list includes Alphonse Bertillon, whose clever system of measurement made him the terror of criminals; Theodore L. De Vinne, whose artistic efforts revolutionized printing; Henry M. Teller, United States senator from Colorado for 30 years, Secretary of the Interior under President Arthur; Viscount Shuzo Aoki, first Japanese ambassador to the United States, and the Earl of Minto, former governor-general of Canada. In March Cardinal Kopf, at the head of the Roman Catholic hierarchy of Germany; the venerable Thomas Bowmen, senior bishop of the Methodist church, and two Protestant Episcopal bishops—John Scarborough of New Jersey, and William Woodruff Niles of New Hampshire passed away. America also lost George Westinghouse, whose air brake is reputed to have saved more lives than were sacrificed in the Napoleonic wars. April marked the passing of the dowager empress of Japan, the well-beloved Haruko; George Alfred Townsend, known widely as a war correspondent; George F. Baer, president of the Reading railroad, and Samuel R. Crockett, who created "The Stickit Minister."

Mal. Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, hero of the Civil war, died early in May. Among the other famous men and women who died during the month were Lillian Nordica, daughter of a Maine farmer, who became one of the world's most successful opera singers, especially famous in Wagnerian roles; Francis Rossmuth, son of the great Hungarian patriot; Charles Scudding, Episcopalian bishop of Oregon; Sir Joseph W. Swan, inventor of the incandescent light; Paul Mouser, inventor of the rifle bearing his name; William O. Bradley, United States senator from Kentucky, and the duke of Argyl.

Adlai E. Stevenson, vice-president of the United States during the second Cleveland administration, died June 12. Grand Duke Adolph Friederich of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, George II, grand duke of Saxe-Meiningen, and Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the throne of Austria-Hungary, the victim of an assassin, are some of the men of royal blood who died in that month. Joseph Chamberlain, long eminent as a British statesman, died early in July. Among other distinguished men who died that month were Horace H. Lurton, associate justice of the United States Supreme court; Melville E. Ingalls of the "Big Four" railroad system; Augustus Smith, oldest graduate of Yale university, and Paul Reclus, brilliant French scientist.

Two names among the August dead stand out with especial prominence—Ellen Louise Axson Wilson, wife of the president of the United States, and Pope Pius XI, head of the Roman Catholic church. John Philip Holland, inventor of the submarine; Gen. Powell Clayton, ex-governor, ex-senator and for half a century the most prominent Republican of Arkansas; Robert McIntyre, bishop of the Methodist church; Father Francis Xavier Wernz, general of the Jesuits, and Margaret Newton Van Cott, known everywhere as an evangelist, were also among the famous dead of August.

The September list includes the names of Edward J. Hall, the "father of the long-distance telephone"; Mrs. Frank Leslie (Baroness Bazun), who revised the practically defunct publishing business left by her husband and bequeathed $1,000,000 to the woman suffrage movement, and Rear Admiral Herbert Winslow, United States navy, retired. On October 10, the aged king of Roumania, Charles I, who maintained the neutrality of his kingdom to the very last in spite of powerful opposition, died at his capital. The Right Rev. Charles Williams Smith, Methodist Episcopal bishop of St. Louis, died on the last day of the month.

Among the eminent dead of November are Lt. Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, who was chief of staff of the United States army from 1894 to 1906; John Keay, former senator from New Jersey; Caroline W. Seavance, "the mother of women's clubs"; Field Marshal Earl Frederick S. Roberts, most famous of British soldiers; Dr. Robert J. Burdette, American lecturer, humorist and preacher. December marked the passing of America's most eminent naval expert and writer, Rear Admiral Alfred T. Mahan.

Mission Schools in Abyssinia.

The Swedish mission in Abyssinia counts in 1885 five stations, 300 converts, 20 native evangelists and 90 pupils in one mission school. Today there are ten stations, 2,000 converts, 75 native evangelists, ten native school teachers, 1,000 pupils in five boarding schools and 20 lay schools in the villages. There is a hospital in full operation and a press which is printing in Amharic, Amari, Tigriana, Tigré, Cunama, Galla and Swahili. Two hundred hymns have been translated into the Tigriana tongue and are used in the native schools.

of that year, the principal port of entry for our freight, began to receive prospective buyers from all over the country, and soon, 22 firms, about half of them from New York, had established offices in the heart of the business section of Allandale. This was followed by a steady increase in the number of the houses well-filled with buyers, and by the end of the year there were 100 firms in the city, and the number of buyers had increased to 1,000. The result was that the Allandale Office became the leading importers of building materials and supplies in the state of Florida.

The Allandale Office has been the first to introduce new water pipes, and these are now being used by all the local builders, and are well received. They are made of lead and are very strong, and are guaranteed to last 100 years. They are now in a condition of pipes for water, and are being used by all the local builders, and are well received.

By the time the Allandale Office was ready to market, the Allandale Office had become the leading importers of building materials and supplies in the state of Florida, and the Allandale Office has now become the leading importers of building materials and supplies in the state of Florida.

FIRST TRIP JAN'Y 10 ON OVERSEA FREIGHT

April 26 of that year. Her principal dimensions are: Length of car deck, 280 feet; length between perpendiculars, 180 feet; breadth on car deck, 57 feet; depth, molded, 22 feet; deadweight capacity at 15 feet draft, 2,500 tons; speed, loaded, 13 knots.

Accommodation is given on the steamer for 30 of the largest refrigerators, which will be carried on the first sets of standard gauge tracks. In addition to this, there are three cargo holds capable of being loaded directly either from the cars or through cargo ports on the side of the vessel. Each hold is served by an independent "Wilmot" double drum electric cargo hoist of two tons capacity. The dry cargo capacity of the steamer is approximately 3,000 tons.

The vessel is divided into watertight compartments. Ten of these are known as "deep tanks" and are used for ballast purposes, having a water capacity of 3,000 tons. They are connected by a system of pipes for filling and discharging, which are served by twelve centrifugal pumps of a capacity to discharge 3,000 tons of water in 15 minutes. By this means the steamer can be loaded down to her full draft when no cargo is carried.

One of the forward ballast tanks has been provided with necessary apparatus for filling and discharging so that it is capable of carrying a cargo of ballast. The power plant consists of two triple-expansion engines, cylinders 20 inches, 32½ inches and 54 inches diameter, respectively, 36 inch stroke. These engines are designed to develop 1,500 indicated horse power each at 100 revolutions per minute and under 175 pounds of steam pressure, which is furnished by a battery of four Scotch marine boilers, each 13 feet 2 inches diameter by 12 feet long, and each fitted with two 48-inch Morrison corrugated furnaces, which are operated under the "Howden" system of forced draft. The auxiliary equipment is unusually complete. Feed, circulating and ballast pumps, also the electric plant, are all in duplicate.

The same careful study and workmanship and elaboration have been carried into the quarters for the officers and crew. Running hot and cold water is furnished to each room. Four individual baths are furnished for the officers, and four shower baths for the crew's quarters, these also being supplied with cold salt water.

From the Key West terminal to Havana, Cuba, the oversea distance which will be traversed by the Henry M. Flagler is about 100 miles, and the run from dock to dock will be made in eight hours, as required by the schedule.

Patch Broken Plaster.

To fill up the broken place in the plastering make a mixture as follows: Two parts each of sifted coal ashes and sand, one part of wheat flour, mixed with water. This can be applied with little trouble, and hardens quickly.

Nicknames of Prize Fighters.

There was a time when nearly every prominent prize fighter had a nickname more generally used by admirers than his real name, and some of these were picturesque. William Thompson, who won the championship in 1835, was known as Bendigo.

The Australian mining town was named after him, and although some of its inhabitants managed to have it rechristened Sandhurst, the new name never caught on.

Quite in Accord.

"When we were married we thought our tastes were congenial!" says she. "Well," answered he, "they are. We both like to argue." — Washington Star.

Peculiar Harvest Festival.

At the end of the harvest season in Malabar there takes place the dance of the drummers, a popular function, in which the principal character is a weird figure supposed to represent the sacred cow of the gods, Kamadeha. A small boy carries this about while the other performers, decked out in primitive fashion with painted bodies and hideous masks, go through a weird dance, accompanied by much drum-beating and singing.

CARD PARTY AT ELKS' HOME ENJOYABLE SOCIAL EVENT

The card party at the Elks' home Friday afternoon was a very enjoyable social affair. The fine weather and the fact that the parties had been discontinued during the holidays probably conduced to a good attendance and there were 12 or more tables of players engaged at bridge or five hundred. The parties, which have always been very popular, will be held regularly hereafter every Friday afternoon during the season.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight in Florida except southern portion. Probably fair to moderate north and west winds.

Donald Morgan sent from friends to friends in his northern home, Ohio, a small alligator. Little saurian failed, however, to stand the rigor of the north wind and a very "toughing" north wind demise appeared in this January issue of the Bellaire Bulletin, copy of which is in possession of Jacob Duga, of Bellaire. He is paying her winter home on Main avenue.

Special attention is being given the Nautilus for the convenience and comfort of outing and picnic parties. The use of the ocean bath grounds is entirely free. There is no dancing at the Nautilus, however, but the bath pavilion and dressing rooms are open for bathers and certain programs will be given. The Nautilus lady orchestra, both day and evening, and evenings, with frequent visitation to the palm garden.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY SERVICES

The session of the Bible school is held at 9:45, and a class suited all ages with competent teachers will come all.

At 11:00 o'clock the pastor, Deacon S. Rightmire, will preach upon the topic: "Why Day of Rest?" This will render special music at both morning and evening services. The organ by Rockwell, "Still We Will Stand," will be rendered by Miss Oris, assisted by the choir. Mr. Manchester will sing the offertory selection, "From the Depths," written by Campion.

In the evening the pastor will preach the first of a series of sermons on "The Man Jesus." A short service precedes the service in the evening. The choir will sing "Sacred Prayer," by Stearns. Mr. Dugan will sing the offertory selection.

Charles Milburn, of Port Orange, was a Daytona visitor Saturday, coming to the city in the morning and remaining with his friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carter, until the afternoon when he left for Miami to attend the Episcopal convocation which will be held in that city next week. Mr. Milburn is a delegate from Grace church of Port Orange.

Loyal to His City. "I understand," said a visitor from Philadelphia to a friend in Boston, "that you have so high an opinion of your city that you think heaven must be like Boston." "Well," was the reply, with a shrug of the shoulders. "I believe I did say so some time ago, but you know Boston has improved a great deal in the last few years." Birmingham Age-Herald.
